Dear Ms. Somerville,

I understand from my conversation with Harvey Rosenfeld and a letter just received from Jean-Paul EMard that you are responsible for the transfer of standards for ISO publication.

I am the technical editor for ISO 10222, which is about to be published as ANSI X3.170A.

Could I ask you to forward either an electronic version and/or a camera-ready copy of X3.170A to ISO for their printing of IS 10222?

My contact is:

I appreciate the fact that you will be taking care of this.

Yours sincerely,

I. Dal Allan
