About the Hotel Location

The Hilton Garden Inn is located in New Orleans' Warehouse District on the edge of downtown - just far enough away from the French Quarter for those who would prefer a more "refined" scene, but close enough (a 15-minute walk) for those who can't get enough of the neighborhood that this city is most known for. There are numerous restaurants led by award-winning chefs (Emeril Lagasse, Nina Compton, Donald Link, to name a few) all within a few-block radius of the hotel. Some recommendations are: Emeril, Cochon, Cochon Butcher, Peche, Compere Lapin, Auction House Market (a food hall), and Willa Jean.
