Comments attached to No ballot from Mr. Edward A. Gardner of Ophidian Designs:

1. Neither the Question nor the reference materials explain what is being voted upon. The Question and Statement contain unexplained acronyms. fcdsov_14776_321 (page 1) contains so many grammatical and spelling errors that it is impossible to determine what it is trying to say.

A satisfactory resolution of this shall include (either in the ballot document or a referenced document) an expansion of all acronyms used in the ballot document (T10/01-259).

2. The copyright statement on page ii of FDIS14776-321 is unacceptable. That copyright statement contains no exception for the purpose of standardization activities. As such I and all other members of t10 are prohibited, by that copyright statement, from copying the document from t10.org, and are therefore unable to review it. Every member of t10 is either in violation of that copyright or has not reviewed this document on which we are allegedly voting. The vote on this ballot is either illegal or invalid.
