Dear Jean-Paul,

I understood from conversations with Harvey Rosenfeld and a letter you distributed in September that Beth Somerville of ANSI was responsible for the transfer of standards for ISO publication.

In her response, Beth indicated that I had misunderstood. It seems you are the contact who makes arrangements to forward copies of ANSI standards to ISO.

I am the technical editor for ISO 10222, which has either been, or is about to be, published as ANSI X3.170A.

Could I ask you to make arrangements to forward an electronic version and/or a camera-ready copy of X3.170A to ISO for their printing of IS 10222?

My contact is: Keith Brannon

I appreciate the fact that you will be able to take care of this.

Yours sincerely,

I. Dal Allan
